LeFay Cottage at Little Washington

WHERE ROMANCE REIGNS

You've been imagining this day since childhood when you first pretended to be bride and groom. Your ideal wedding day fantasy is a dream come true amid this enchanted cottage world set far from the maddening crowds, beneath azure mountains older than time. You'll be seduced by the gentle breeze caressing the fragrant lavender field, whispering through the majestic pines, reminders of what was once upon a time a Christmas tree farm.

*Come for the fantasy,
Stay for the romance!*

THE COTTAGE LeFAY

The Cottage is nestled at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains in Rappahannock, Virginia and is the perfect venue for romantic weddings. An enchanted place to celebrate your happily ever after.

THE BRIDAL EN SUITE

Inside the three-bedroom, two-bath cottage, the decor complements the lush acreage with shabby chic tones of sage, pink, and cream. French and English antiques and twinkly chandeliers adorn each room flowing seamlessly throughout the cottage.

“LeFay Cottage at Little Washington is an oasis of amour, the place to be in celebration of the storybook wedding.”

—Brenda Morgan
